

Scottish High International School, Gurgaon organised the fourth edition of a two-day Model United Nations (MUN) Conference 2019. The SHIS MUN 2019 got together more than 700 delegates from various schools across Delhi/NCR. School director Sudha Goyal welcomed all the delegates. The unique aspect of all the SHIS MUN's is that it is organised coordinated and conducted by the students independently.

The cultural presentation for the occasion was a Bharatnatyam recital by Aaruni Arora. She not only exhibited grace but fluidity and her mudras were executed to perfection. The planning in progress for the MUN was shown through a visual presentation and thus the conference was declared open. Individuals and teams were given awards to acknowledge the participation of delegates. The forum culminated with Shivang Singh, Chief Adviser and Palakh Khetrpal, Secretary General, declaring the conclave of SHIS MUN the fourth edition closed after thanking and expressing their earnest gratitude to each and everyone involved in creating this 'ethereal two days.'

Scottish High International School, Gurgaon

R K Public School, Gurgaon celebrated the teacher's day in a grand manner. 'Aacharya Vandan' was performed by students as a gesture of respect for their teachers. They also offered flowers and cards to the teachers and conducted interesting activities among the teachers. The winners were given grade marks by judges. All the office staff, peons and school drivers took part in the games played.

R K Public School, Gurgaon

A 12-day trip to Sweden for 10 students from India and 10 students from China Sweden was organised by IVL Swedish Environmental Research Institute and was funded by the Swedish Institute. Samay Gupta, a student of Ridge Valley School, Gurgaon was one among the 20 students selected from India. The students were informed about the sustainable methods which are being practiced in Sweden. It was a fairly balanced camp which introduced the students to the Swedish culture and their sustainable practices as well. For every theoretical lecture, there was a practical experience in the form of a field trip or an activity. Many topics were introduced keeping in mind the current world environmental scenario, for instance, wastewater treatment, waste collection and management, etc. The schedule prepared by the project head was extremely productive. To engage the students further, report writing assignments, group case solving, presentations and talent showcase events were organised.

Ridge Valley School, Gurgaon

Suncity School, Sector 37D, Gurgaon planned a month long reading habit promotion drive 'Fable Festival - A Reading Fiesta.' This reading programme saw the students enjoy reading and went a long way in getting them to develop the confidence to write the story reports on their own. The parents were mailed a number of short stories of varying difficulty levels throughout the month. To celebrate the joy of reading a special reading ambience was created in the school library. Children and parents participated with zeal as it gave them an opportunity to spend a happy reading hour with each other. At the end of the month school principal Guneet Ohri gave 'Avid Reader' badges and certificates to those children who had read the maximum number of books/stories.

Suncity School, Sector 37D, Gurgaon

Red Roses Public School, Palam Vihar

The Sanskrit Department of Red Roses Public School, Palam Vihar organised the Sanskrit Divas. The event commenced with 10-minute guided meditation and yoga followed by lamp lighting and tilak ceremony to welcome the chief guest Dr Sunita Rani, Doctrate of Sanskrit and a guest lecturer at Bhagini Nivedita College, DU. The ambience of the event was turned serene when the children unanimously chanted Gayatri Mantra. The spirit of morality and tranquillity were well exhibited by the participants with their 'Natikas' spreading various social messages. All the performances were encouraged by the chief guest and school headmistress Seema Chhiber. The winners were awarded with the badges 'Vidwaan' and 'Vidushi', for girls and boys respectively to motivate their efforts.